iam Mackey, alias Sullivan, twenty-one old, of 1831 Third avenue, and Charles rears old, of 1822 Third avenue, and Charles Amastrong, twenty-two years of old, of 1971 Third avenue, were arraigned before Justice Welde at the Harlem Police Court this morning on a charge of burglary, and were held in $1,000 hall each for triel.

At 1 o'clock yesterday morning, it is alseed, the prisoners forced the front window of the residence of Mrs. Ann Miland, of 237 East One Hundred and Ninth street, and carried away a large bureau with its contents valued at $100. They carried it to the cellar of William Hoff's house, 236 East One Hundred and Eighth street, where they left it until 10 o'clock in the morning.

At that time they returned and carried it to the grocery of B. Amann, 221 East One Hundred and Eighth street, and offered it for alls for $3. While they were trying to arrange a bargain detectives arrested them. The detectives had heard of the burglary through the complaint of Mrs. Miland, who had beard the burglars in the house, but who had beard the burglars in the house, but who had beard at the price of the surglary through the complaint of Mrs. Miland, who had beard the burglars in the house, but who had beard the venture downstairs until they left.

JEERS AT JERSEY.

A Consenant of Popular Opinion as to How They Originated.

The New Jersey edition of THE WORLD blished yesterday a half page of opinions om Jersey people as to the origin of the corrupten cast at their State, as if it were outside the Union and a subject for general butaide the Union and a subject for general disparagement.

Very spirited were many of the views uttered, and some of them came from feminine residents of the State.

The view most prevalent as to the origin of the phrase "the United States and New Jersey" seemed to be that it came from the fast that during the war New Jersey stood atome in voting the Democratic ticket. Hence it was rideculed by the Republican press and counted outside the Union.

Together with these views, invited by Tws World, were given popular expressions as to the general and special legislation needed in the State.

The residence in the State of Joseph Bonaparie, Ring of Naples and Sicily and of Spain and the Indies, was also given as a reason for some of the allusions to New Jersey as a foreign country.

Roller Skating Contests.

H. B. Bailey and George W. Anderson, of Brooklyn, will akate a series of races for a $50 purse, in the Fifth Avenue Rink, Brooklyn, begioping to-day, and continuing on the 18th, 16th, 17th, 20th and 22d of this month. Dick Philips is training Bailey for these races, and Jack Smith wants to match him for any amount against Anderson, after this series, provided the race takes place in the Colsegum Skating Bink, in this city.

A Sunken Schooner Raised. The schooner C. Matthews, which has lain sunk just outside the Narrows for some weeks past and was a serious menace to navigation, was raised by the derrick Reliance to-day and is now lying off Red Hook minus her cargo of coal, with which she was loaded when she went down.

Crushed Amid Whirling Wheels. Michael Rahl, aged forty-three, of 2318
Third avenue, while at work in the wire factory at the foot of East One Hundred and Eighteenth street had his right hand caught and crushed in the wheels of the machinery. He was re-

Acted the Brave in an " L." Train. miel Daly was sent to the island for ten days day for insulting the passengers in an Ele-sted train last night and pointing a revolver at be conductor. It was found that the revolver as not loaded.

TWO SISTERS IN CRIME.

A Precocious Criminal Career for Girls Yet in Their Teens.

Mary Daly, aged sixteen, and Gertrude, her sister, aged fourteen, were arraigned in Jefferson Market Police Court this morning, and then remanded until later in the day.

The girls were traced out by detectives from Capt. Grant's precinct, the Sixteenth, as the perpetrators of a series of thefts reported from the public schools in West Eighteenth and West Twenty-fourth streets, where the class-rooms were mysteriously mvaded at different times by parties who carried away cloaks and other portions of wearng apparel belonging to the pupils.

Much of the property was recovered by the detectives from pawnshops, where the younger girl had left it.

The sisters seemed utterly hardened in their precocious career of thieving, and Gertrude old to the officers an ingenious story in which she maintained her innocence until confronted by her sister's confession.

The girls lived at 1081 Tenth avenue. They are said to be the same pair which lately collected money under the pretense that it was for the Convent of the Sacred Heart. They are also suspected of robberies at several flats in Sixth avenue, between Fifty-first and Fifty-second streets. The elder girl was employed for a short time at Truesdell's, in West Fourteenth street, under the name of Katie Bird.

SLAUGHTER

Facts and Figures vs. Talk and Wind.

All the Clothiers in town are advertising " tearing down," "rebuilding," "making extensions," &c., as a reason for so-called "Bargain Sales;" but these "improvements" are invisible to the eye. We don't believe in Humbugging the Public, and have heretofore not mentioned that we are NOW adding to our large building an extension covering over 10,000 square feet, which will give us the most commodious clothing store in the world. There's no Humbug about this extension. You can see our Three Hundred Union Workmen hard at work from our store windows, and by Jan. 1 our store will reach from Broadway to Mercer street-a whole block. This being a greater addition than all the other New York clothiers will make during the next twelve months.

Really Forced to Vacate Now.

When we commenced building our enormous sion nearly three weeks ago we did not expect to have our present storeroom interfered with by our workmen. But we were notified yesterday by the Contractor that we would be compelled to vacate our basement floor during the next week, as workmen must take immediate possession, to expedite completion of the building. We have on this floor over $200,000.00 of substantial, well-made Clothing of our own manufacture, which must be sold at once. One glance at our heaped-up tables will show we have no room for these goods, hence we offer them at TWENTY-FIVE CENTS ON THE DOLLAR during the next THREE DAYS. This is a genuine sacrifice of new. clean goods. Read these prices. We guarantee to produce every germent advertised. duce every garment advertised.
